GO!!...by all means. What's the risk?...that you might have fun, see some old friends, share your life with Us?

How 'bout those cafeteria enchiladas? What will it take to draw you back? We've all moved on in our lives, to many wonderful places. But this is a chance to "go back" for a moment to a special time in our lives.

No matter what we've done in our lives, no matter where we've gone...there is a basic Truth and that is the honesty, decency and respectful grounding that we got from our parents, family, friends, clergy, teachers and school administrators...why don't we call it, "Our Values."

This reunion is a coming together for many reasons, but one of the common threads will be our common values...Let's Celebrate These Values!
